

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

May 31, 2004

SOLDIERS OF V CORPS' 12TH AVIATION BRIGADE TURN OUT TO RUN IN FIRST 'ALL-BRIGADE' EVENT SINCE DEPLOYMENT

Photos by Mindy Campbell
417th Base Support Battalion Public Affairs Office

GIEBELSTADT ARMY AIRFIELD,

Germany – Approximately 800

Soldiers from V Corps' 12th Aviation Brigade celebrated the unit's full return from Operation Iraqi Freedom with a May 27 run that brought the entire brigade together for the first time since coming home from its year-long deployment to OIF.

Soldiers of V Corps' 3rd Battalion, 158th Aviation line up with their unit guidons prior to the start of a brigade run at the Giebelstadt (Germany) Army Airfield May 27. The 3/158th was the "guest of honor" for the run.

As the last unit to return home, the Soldiers of the brigade's 3rd Battalion, 158th Aviation were the "guests of honor" for the event.

Capt. Andrew Gonzalez (left) and Sgt. Eliezer Morales (center) of the Headquarters and Headquarters Company of V Corps' 12th Aviation Brigade, stretch and warm up prior to the start of a brigade run at Giebelstadt (Germany) Army Airfield May 27.

Soldiers of the 3rd Battalion, 158th Aviation prepare to head off on an early morning run as part of their parent unit, V Corps' 12th Aviation Brigade, at Giebelstadt (Germany) Army Airfield May 27.

With his unit's colors in hand, Maj. Selwyn Jamison, battalion executive officer for the 3rd Battalion, 58th Aviation (Air Traffic Services) of V Corps' 12th Aviation Brigade, leads his unit in an early morning brigade run at Giebelstadt (Germany) Army Airfield May 27. Approximately 800 brigade soldiers took part in the event, which brought the 12th's soldiers together en masse for the first time since their return from deployment to Operation Iraqi Freedom.

